CONTINUATION PAGE TO ORDER

In granting the motion, the court finds that service of the motion was duly made on the secured creditors, Chase Bank/JPMorgan Chase Bank, BSI Financial and Jorge Tobias Real, but other creditors, including general unsecured creditors, were not served. The court did not order such service, given the exigent circumstances of the imminent expiration of the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(A), debtor is self-represented and debtor is acting through his wife, Isadora Rivera, under a power of attorney due to his being in temporary custody in Los Angeles County Jail pending trial in a criminal case scheduled for sometime in December 2018. As to the unserved creditors, they may file an objection to the application of the order continuing the stay as to them based on lack of service and request a hearing at which time debtor will have to demonstrate as to such objecting creditors that this case is filed in good faith.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
